TYPE OF INCIDENT:

Assistance to CalFIRE

DATE AND TIME OF OCCURRENCE:

Wednesday, May 1, 2013, 2:14 p.m.

INCIDENT SUMMARY:

Summit Incident: On Wednesday, May 1, 2013, a vegetation fire broke out at 38900 West Oak Valley Parkway in the County of Riverside. At 2:14 p.m., we received a request for assistance from Banning Fire Department. We deployed one helicopter and one heavy tender; both have been released from the incident. At 3:59 p.m., additional resources were requested. Currently, we have four camp crew strike teams and two battalion chiefs assigned to this incident. CalFIRE is reporting 40 percent containment and 3,000 acres burned. There is currently no fire involvement in Los Angeles County. The Department will recall some of these units if fire activity increases in Los Angeles County.
